HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 752

By Robinson

A RESOLUTION to commend Mr. Andrew "A.C." Cox on his performance as a state legislative intern for the House Transportation Committee.

WHEREAS, each legislative session, this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Andrew G. Cox, a senior at Trevecca Nazarene University in Nashville, was selected to serve as a 2000 state legislative intern for the Tennessee General Assembly and was assigned to work in the bustling office of the House Transportation Committee; and

WHEREAS, Andrew has been of invaluable assistance to Chairman Robb Robinson, Vice-Chairman Joe Fowlkes, Secretary John White, and the rest of the members and staff of the House Transportation Committee, carrying out his assigned tasks with efficiency and skill without complaint; and

WHEREAS, Andrew is a noteworthy scholar at Trevecca Nazarene University, where he is double majoring in Political Science and History and is minoring in Biology; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2000 legislative session, Andrew Cox has surpassed all criteria with regard to the attributes of a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Andrew has demonstrated his genuine concern for the people of the State of Tennessee and dedication for their well-being through his service; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself about the characteristics and complexity of Tennessee state government and to assist in his studies, Andrew brought his many abilities and expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2000 session of the One Hundred First General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Cox is an exuberant young man whose worthy career goals include working in the financial field; and

WHEREAS, Andrew's participation in the intern program is in the best tradition of public service, where long hours of hard work are performed, not for public praise, but for the satisfaction of a job well done; and

WHEREAS, Andrew's praiseworthy service to the General Assembly has been in the great tradition of Tennessee volunteerism and in accordance with the public-spirited principles of democracy upon which the United States of America was founded; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That we hereby commend Mr. Andrew Cox for his outstanding service as a legislative intern for the House Transportation Committee and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation to A.C. Cox, with this final clause omitted from such copy.
